

Report to the Kentucky Library Association Board
28 September 2011

- I submitted an article on using city directories for the “Genealogy Gems” column of Kentucky Libraries.
- I was asked to serve on the planning committee for Librarians’ Day at the 2012 National Genealogical Society Conference to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio. I was also invited to present a program on researching in Northern Kentucky at the 2012 National Genealogical Society Conference.
- I attended the Federation of Genealogical Societies’ 2011 Conference in Springfield, Illinois September 6th – 10th. I attended sessions devoted to “chapter management” that addressed growing new memberships for societies, and recommended online tools for societies. I also spoke with two representatives from the Kentucky Department of Libraries and Archives about increasing the profile of KDLA and other Kentucky libraries and institutions at future genealogical conferences.
- No other new activities to report.

Respectfully submitted,
